YOUR HOST FOR NBA HANGTIME: DAN PATRICK

Dan Patrick has become widely recognized for his poignant interviews and witty highlight voiceovers in his role as anchor/reporter, primarily on ESPN's 11 p.m. ET Sports-Center. He also reports from major events such as the Super Bowl, World Series, NBA Finals and Final Four, and has called play-by-play for select NCAA basketball telecasts (1990-93) since joining ESPN in March 1989.

Patrick's reports feature astute knowledge, a dry sense of humor, and his unique perspective, as well as a style which has provided a "comfort zone" for his co-host. His trademark phrases "the whiff" (after a strikeout), "gone!" (after a home run) and a snappy "good" (after a basketball field goal is made), have become anticipated by viewers.

Noteworthy among Patrick's roles is his lead-in to and voiceover of SportsCenter's Plays of the Week segment.

Prior to working with ESPN, Patrick was a sports anchor/reporter for CNN (1983-89), where his assignments included the World Series, NBA Finals and Winter Olympics. He also served as sports director of WKLS-AM in Atlanta (1987-91), and provided weekday morning sports reports for Laser-103 in Milwaukee and WLVQ-AM in Columbus, Ohio (1989-91) and for KSEG-AM in Sacramento (1991).

Patrick began his career in 1979 as the morning sports and news reporter at WTUE-Radio in Dayton, Ohio, prior to becoming weekend sports anchor/reporter at WDTN-TV in Dayton in 1981.

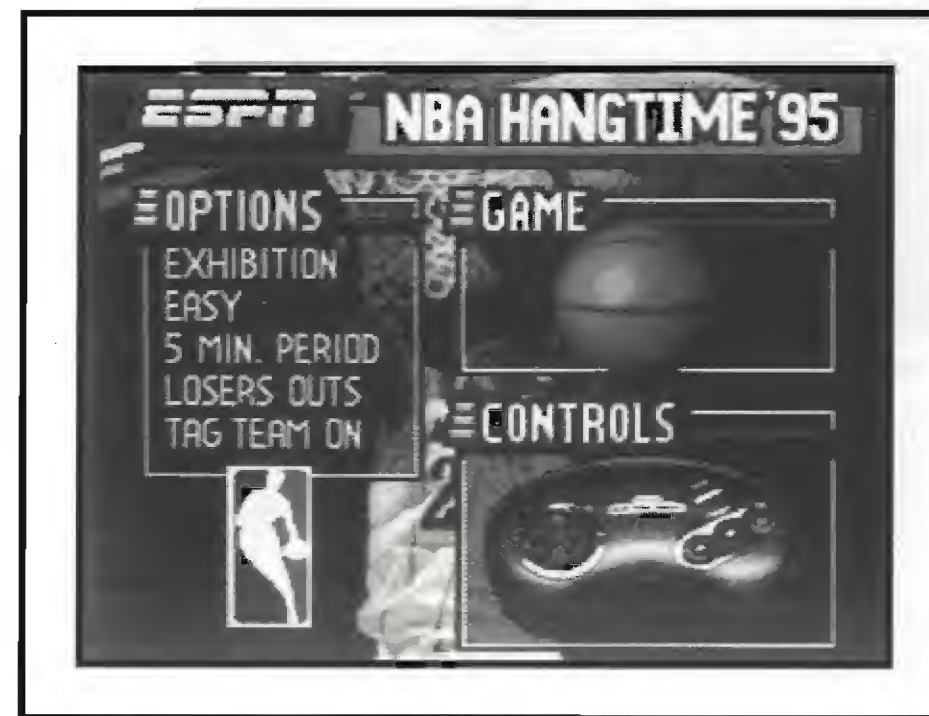

Born May 15, 1957, Patrick received a bachelor of arts degree in broadcasting from the University of Dayton in 1979. He resides in West Hartford, Conn. with his wife, Susan, and their children, Jack and Grace.

Your favorite players from every team in the NBA are lined up and waiting for you to take them to the top! The best three players from each team are yours to choose from in a 2-on-2 match-up vs. either the computer or another player (in 2-Player mode). You're responsible for every shot, tactic and move in this challenging test of skill and endurance!

Before beginning the contest, you have a multitude of choices available to you to customize your game. Take a few moments to familiarize yourself with the different options available to you. Listed below are the categories and options for NBA HANGTIME '95.

The Main Options Screen features the sub-headings: Options, Game and Controls. The word that appears yellow is the sub-menu you will go to when you press the Start Button. Use the D-Pad to toggle between the choices on the Main Options Menu.

OPTIONS:

This sub-menu features the following choices:

Play Mode: Season, Exhibition, or Playoffs. This is for the duration of the game(s) you wish to play. Exhibition is a one-time event, while Season simulates an entire basketball season. Playoffs bypass the regular season and go directly to the NBA Playoffs.

Difficulty: How tough do you want to play? The settings include Easy, Medium, and Hard.

Period Length: How long do you want each quarter? Choices are: 2, 5, and 12 minute periods.

Outs: Who gets the ball after a score? Winners or Losers.

Tag Mode: With Tag Mode ON, while playing offense the human operator is automatically switched to the ball carrier on his team after a pass, rebound, etc. With Tag Mode ON while on defense, the human operator can switch between players by pressing the 'SPECIAL' button. With Tag Mode OFF, the human operator always controls the same player during game play, and can switch to a different player only during substitutions.

CONTROLS:

This sub-menu features the following choices:

The commands for Shoot, Special, and Pass are assigned to Buttons A, B, and C in this mode. Find the combination that suits your playing needs and set it here! On defense it is Jump, Special, and Steal. Press C Button to switch between offense and defense controls.

GAME: Press the Start Button here to begin the game.

SPECIAL NOTE: In the Season and Playoff modes, the following sub-menu appears: The next screen you see is of the NBA logo with another set of options. Use the D-Pad to toggle between the choices and press the Start Button to make your selection. The choices here are: Resume Game (from a previously played game), New Game (start a new series), and Best Of 7 or One Game. The Best of 7 works like the playoffs – the first team to win 4 games takes the series.

From this point (in all of the playing modes), the choices for your teams and whether you wish to play at home or as visitor appears. Assign which player has which team, then press the Start Button to continue. The Key Match-Up of the game is highlighted (including the player's stats). Press the Start Button here and the game begins!

You can follow your team's progress in the Playoff and Season modes by looking at the Team Standings Screen after each bout. If you are eliminated in the Playoffs, the game is over and you'll have to try again.

Throughout the booklet, the buttons on the Genesis Control Pad will be referred to as follows: Directional Pad (D-Pad), Start Button, Button C, Button B, and Button A.

Throughout the game the D-Pad controls the movement of the player(s).

Player has possession of the ball:

The default settings for the Offense controls are:
 Button A = Shoot
 Button B = Special
 Button C = Pass

Pressing Button A initiates a jump. If you do not press another button before the player's feet hit the ground, the player automatically shoots to avoid a traveling penalty. But, if you press the same button again while your player is in mid-jump, he'll shoot the ball immediately. This increases the accuracy of the shot (if he is at the apex of the jump when you press the button again), and adds a level of operator skill to your game.

Press Button C in the middle of a jump to PASS the ball to your teammate.

Holding the B Button down causes your player to operate in TURBO MODE. This also makes him fatigue much faster.

DUNKING: The player performs a dunk instead of a jumpshot if he is close enough to the basket. Not all dunks are going into the hoop! Use the Special Button Combos to do cool dunks that are nearly unstoppable!

Pressing Button C while dribbling the ball initiates a PASS.

IF Tag Mode is OFF, Player does NOT have possession of the ball:

Press Button A while your teammate has the ball to make him shoot.

Press Button C to make him PASS the ball back to you.

GENERAL NOTES

In a half court game the ball must be cleared on a change of possession if it has hit the backboard. To clear the ball, your player must bring (dribble) it out past the 3-point line. The computer team does this automatically. After a score or penalty, the ball is taken out automatically!

Welcome to the Tour! Twelve teams from around the world compete for the ultimate 2-on-2 Basketball Championship in this original game! Each team has individual players with stats and playing styles all their own! Find the team that has a playing style you are most comfortable with and try to take them all the way to the championship title!

Stuart Scott serves as co-anchor on SportsNight, ESPN2's flagship program. Scott, who joined ESPN2 August 30, 1993 (one month before the network's debut) as a SportSmash anchor, assumed his current role in March 1994.

Prior to joining ESPN2, Scott worked for WESH-TV in Orlando, Fla., as a sports reporter and sports anchor from 1990 to 1993. While at WESH, he earned first place honors from the Central Florida Press Club for a feature on rodeo.

Scott also worked as a news reporter at WRAL-TV in Raleigh, N.C. (1988-90) and as a news reporter and weekend sports anchor at WPDE-TV in Florence, S.C. (1987-88).

Scott, born July 19, 1965 in Chicago, graduated from the University of North Carolina in 1987 with a bachelor of arts degree in speech communications and radio, television and motion pictures. At North Carolina, he worked at the student radio station, WXYC-FM, as a sports and news reporter. He also played wide receiver and defensive back for a club football team.

Scott currently resides with his wife, Kimberley, in Canton, Conn.

SPECIAL NOTE:

The mechanics of the game play are identical to the NBA HANGTIME '95 version with a few minor alterations listed below:

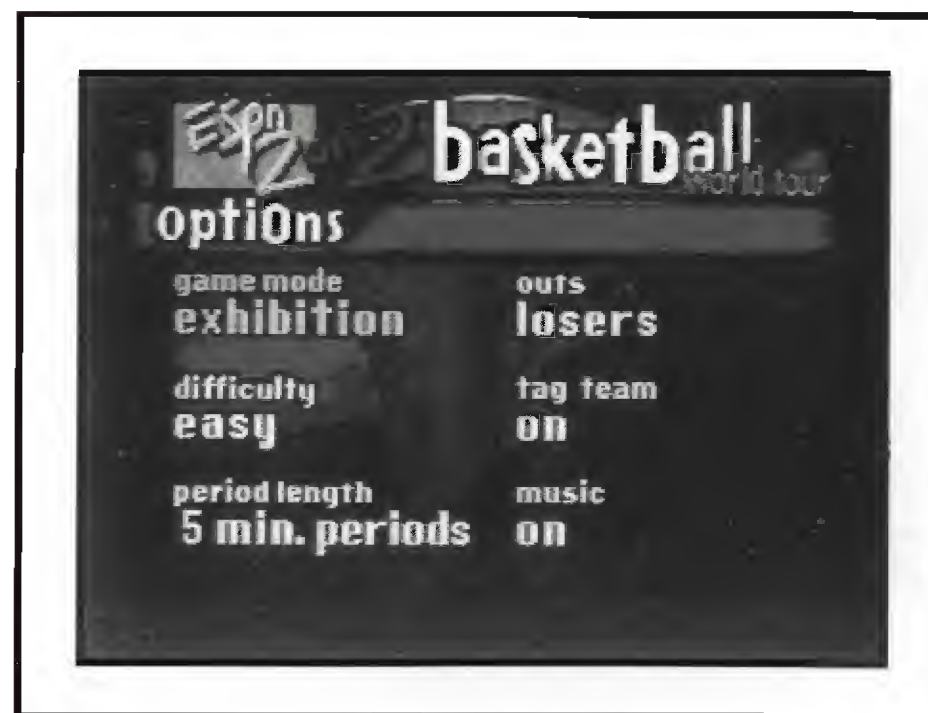

Options Screen (Sub-menu): There are two modes of play: Tournament and Exhibition.

If you choose Tournament Mode, you will see a screen offering the choice between Start Tournament and Load Tournament. Choose Load Tournament if you have a previously saved game in memory.

Team Selection: Choose from twelve major locations from around the world to be your home team! Each team has players with a variety of talents and skills to enhance your chances of taking the tournament!

A map of the world appears (in Tournament Mode) to show you the path that you will take on your route to the finals!

Press the Start Button to toggle through the various information screens until you arrive at the outdoor playing field!
